Evaluation

How are we doing?

The 355th Force Support Squadron is here to support you and your family, so great customer service is the core of what we do!

We want to know your experience with our facilities and services, both the good and the bad! The ICE (Interactive Customer Evaluation) program is a way for you to immediately send us your comments.

Comment & win!

We will be displaying QR codes in each FSS facility that you can scan with the camera on your phone. Include your name & contact information in order to receive a reply about your review, as well as be entered to win a FSS gift card in one of our quarterly drawings!

Operation Homefront & FSS Marketing
Free Toy Drive for military families

NOW, THAT'S THE SPIRIT!

Our goal at the 355 Force Support Squadron is to provide superior support to our DM community and their families. We accomplish this through various programs and events held throughout the year around base. With the support of our morale, welfare, recreation, manpower and personnel program services, we are able to provide fun and engaging activities and virtual programming to increase morale and provide some fun for our DM families.

In the Spring of 2020, we had to get creative with how we wanted to program and deliver our Basewide Events. The pandemic introduced some logistical challenges that did make it difficult to operate "as usual." But we redirected our resources into promoting virtual programs to provide an alternate experience for families.

We started with Virtual Hop-A-Palooza, where the DM community was encouraged to participate in online activities to collect points and entries to submit towards $10,000 in prizes. This event was so successful, we continued to offer virtual "spirit weeks" to help encourage folks to get involved, have some fun, and at the same time earn chances to win prizes!

We have continued our virtual programming model, and will lead another virtual event, Virtual Hop-A-Palooza, beginning April 1st. We are aiming to provide the same level of excellence we've delivered through last year, and have extended this upcoming Spirit Week from a week-long to a month-long event, in recognition of our fabulous DM community, and Month of the Military Child. We have tons of great things in store, and will continue to promote our virtual spirit weeks throughout the year!

*We hope you will join us,
the 355 Force Support Squadron is open and ready to serve you!*

FCC Provider of the Year • 2 Yrs Running
355th Force Support Squadron

JAMIE GRIFFIN

What services do you provide as a FCC Provider? I provide a different type of care for our families at DM. I am open early mornings for those parents who need to be at work before the CDC opens, as well as those schedules that go beyond the closing hours of the CDC. I also provide Deployment Care and support the Reserve member on their guard weekends.

What do you enjoy most about childcare? I truly love all of the children I care for. I most enjoy all of their little different personalities and seeing how their minds work. I love seeing them create new art projects and learning through play.

What's the best part of being a FCC provider versus in a commercial childcare environment?

I love that FCC provides a "home away from home" feel. It's cozy, and comfortable for the children and helps them feel at home even though they are checked into daycare. It's has homey elements while still being immersed in a learning environment.

What inspired you to become a FCC childcare provider? When I first started, it was to stay home with my newborn son. When I decided to reopen here, it was to support the tremendous need that the DM airmen community was lacking. Especially the different types of shift care.

What suggestions would you have for people interested in pursuing a career in early childhood education/care? A career in childcare can be stressful but when you see a child's face light up it becomes so rewarding and fulfilling. This career field can be limitless and you can choose your favorite age group and guide and mild young minds! There's are so many avenues to cater for young children. Each one always rewarding.

of the Year,
